EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The above named officers and the Representatives chosen by the District Leagues. (Three District Leagues are to elect representatives after we go to press.)

Greeting

From the Bowmanville League to the Leaguers of the Bay of Quinte Conference.

We, of the local League, welcome you to our homes, our church, our town and to our hearts. We welcome you because of that for which you stand, viz: the best in church and state, in home and society, in industry and commerce, in theory and practice, in aspiration and attainment, in endeavor and achievement.

We welcome you because you stand for life, not death, motion not inertia, movement not stagnation, eddies and streams not puddles and pools, aggressive not moribund Christianity, for battle and conquest not camp and defeat.

We welcome you, moreover, because your faces are toward sunrise, a day of improved conditions; and because you stand for the brothering of the nations and the bringing of a Kingdom of happiness and good fellowship.

Welcome, THRICE Welcome!!

Yours in fellowship of love and service
for Christ and the Church,

VERNON H. EMORY, Pastor.
L. K. FARR, President.
H. H. TODGHAM, Secretary.

There's One Thought

WHICH has been continually uppermost in the minds of the makers of the "DOMINION" PIANOS & ORGANS, and that single idea has been QUALITY. Every item which enters into their construction measures up to the highest standard of quality. It is continual watchfulness and care which have made the "DOMINION" such an instrument as to win for it a national reputation.

Wednesday Morning—Continued

"My conviction is that the Junior League is the most promising and most precious field of evangelistic effort within the reach of the church and the pastor. There are thousands of ministers endeavoring to hold revival meetings night after night, with scarcely an unconverted person in the house to listen to their fervent appeals. At the same time in the homes there are from fifty to a hundred young people in Christian homes and Sunday School classes, who, under the right influences, can be brought to an afternoon meeting, can in due time be led to decision for Christ, and can become trained young disciples for Christ.

DR. JESSE LYMAN HURLBUT.

11.20–11.35—Discussion. Led by Rev. W. Higgs.

11.35–11.55—What one Junior League has done and is doing. Miss M. Florence Adams.

H. M. HAMI.

"The Junior Society, being a part of the Senior, should have all possible aid and support the latter can give it; and it is expected that when the members of the Junior have reached the age limit, they will enter the Senior Society as Active members."

11.55–12.10—Discussion by delegates on what other Junior Leagues have done, are doing, or may do; and on organization of Junior Leagues where Senior Leagues exist.

I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life.
THE MASTER.

3.25–3.50—The Young Man Problem. What is it? How may we help solve it?

Dr. A. C. Crews.

"Where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty."

"The world with its social and international problems, the church with her perplexites, need now and ever, men filled with the Spirit. Men there are of the letter; men who cannot take a brave step forward unless they see the footsteps of a bolder than they. Not by such are the new heavens and the new earth ushered in. The world is lifted and moved by men of the Spirit, for they alone enjoy the freedom under which progress is possible. They strike a blow as the world needs and the Spirit bids and do not tremble though their blow should be the first; some blow must be first. Meaner natures hide behind convention; will do nothing which cannot be supported by precedent. Few men create precedent. To them the past is not an incubus but an inspiration."

John Edgar McFadyen in "The Divine Pursuit."

3.50–4.10—Discussion. From the Pastor's Standpoint.
Led by Rev. C. E. Cragg, B. D.

"The great victories which men praise are always won first of all in a man's own soul. The great men who stamp themselves ineffaceably on the ages are always the men who are capable of conceiving a purpose clearly, and of following it courageously through evil and good report. The great force with which you have to reckon is the immense strength and heroic persistency of their purpose. I may confidently assert that I have never known a manly ministry which has failed to touch young men. They know at once whether the preacher has been through the fire, and has touched the realities of life with his own hands, and has trodden for himself the path of temptation they know so well. "Show me how to live" is the cry of the young man, "give me brotherhood, comradeship, practical aid."

W. J. Dawson.

4.10–4.30—Discussion. From a layman's standpoint.
Led by Mr. Fred. R. Foley.
Appointed by Bowmanville League.

"There is not a note of weakness in the whole teaching of Jesus or Paul. There is always the call to nobility of heart and life, to rugged strength of body and mind. It does not take you out of the world; it puts you into the world; it throws you into the thick of the fight and says, "There—show thyself a man."

W. H. Greistweit in E. L. Reading Course.

4.30—Singing.

Re ". McMullen in CAN. EP. ERA.

11.15—Singing.
11.20–12—"The Quiet Hour" Mrs. J. R. Aikenhead.

"Penticost is to be perpetual and progressive."
Dr. Crews in CAN. EP. ERA.

Henry Drummond

Attempt great Things For God.

See Isaiah 54 : 2-3

"Prayer and Missions are faith and works. Before "give" and before "go" comes "pray." This is the divine order. Let the twelve meetings of the year be planned in advance with great care. The pastor is the director-general of the Christian forces. A pastor who does not have a deep interest in the world program of Christ is untrue to his credentials and instructions for an ambassador represents his sovereign."
